Roles and Responsibilities

1. To provide the VWA Board with advice and suggestions regarding referee development and programs in Western Australia.
2. To create and foster a link between all bodies involved with refereeing volleyball in Western Australia.
3. To provide policy recommendations for the development of referees in Western Australia including the ongoing development and coordination of referee Talent Identification and FTEM (Fundamentals, Talent, Elite and Mastery) pathways.

Working Principles

1. The members of the VWARC will recognise and support the confidential nature of the working committee and will support and develop Volleyball WA's broad goal regarding referee development.
2. The members of the VWARC will support Volleyball WA's mission and vision statements and will abide and be bound by the Volleyball WA's constitution, by-laws and Codes of Conduct.

Reporting to

The VWARC committee is a working committee within the VWA structure. The nominated staff member will provide Executive Officer support to the VWARC and when required will forward the committee's recommendations to the Executive Director, VWA committees and/or the VWA Board for discussion and ratification as required.

Notes from the VWARC are to be tabled and approved at the next official VWA Board meeting. Once endorsed they will be made available on the VWA website.

The VWARC will meet a minimum of four times a year.

Appointment Process

The term of appointment for VWARC will be initially for a 12 months. The VWARC will be requested to discuss and provide recommendations to the VWA Board in regards to members of the Committee being appointed on a 'rolling basis' of 12 months and two years respectively.

If VWA does not receive nominations for all positions on the VWARC then the role of the Committee will be to identify possible other candidates. It will then be the responsibility of the Chairperson and / or the VWA Executive Officer to approach them in regards to joining the VWARC.

Conversely if there are more nominations than available on the Committee the following positions shall be responsible for the selection of the Committee members;

- Chairperson of the VWARC Committee
- VWA Board of Management Representative
- VWA Executive Officer

The Chairperson of the VWARC Committee and the VWA Executive Officer may decide that on occasion the discussion items on the Committee meeting agenda may benefit from the involvement of another individual / VWA Committee Representative / VWA Stakeholder at the Committee Meeting. As appropriate the Chairperson of the VWARC Committee and / or the VWA Executive Officer may invite them to the Committee Meeting (s).
