

2023 Volleyball Coach Information Pack

Introduction

Coaching Volleyball is a fun and exciting opportunity to share your knowledge of the sport. Volleyball WA is thrilled that you have considered coaching volleyball this season. There are plenty of opportunities to coach such as community kids and juniors, schools, clinics, and WAVJL and WAVL teams, all of which can be pathways to other local, national, and international opportunities.

Coaching with VWA is easy. Simply send an expression of interest through email indicating what you want to coach and availability alongside your previous coaching experience. Your contact at VWA will check your documents and let you know how to proceed.

Coaching is a great way to earn some extra money, and the rates for this season are outlined in this document.

We thank you in advance for your commitment to volleyball.

Essential Requirements

To be eligible to coach for Volleyball WA you must have (or be willing to obtain):

- A VWA membership.
- A VA Coaching Accreditation.
- A Working With Children Card (if eligible).

Equipment

VWA Coaches will generally receive the equipment needed for each session which usually consists of balls, ball trolleys and a session plan.

Uniforms

It is a requirement that all coaches look the part and are always presentable.

VWA Preference

- All coaches wear a Volleyball WA or a previously approved polo/shirt.
- Athletic/Court shoes must always be worn.

Who gets paid to Coach?

- Not all Coaches in volleyball are paid and those who get paid may be paid different rates depending on the session and their level of accreditation.
- Only accredited Coaches coaching Discover Volley, School Clinics or anything else directly for VWA are paid by VWA.
- State Team Coaches get an honorarium payment.
- VWA does not pay club coaches or school coaches employed directly by a school.
