- VWA Staff representatives
- Executive Officer – VWA Community and Stakeholder Engagement Coordinator

Maximum of 7 individuals in the Places To Play WG. All positions will be appointed by the VWA board. At the discretion of the Chairperson guests may be invited to attend from time to time.

Roles and Responsibilities

- To provide the VWA Board with recommendations that will provide places to play Volleyball and manage the delivery of the sport across the state.
- To provide the VWA Board with recommendations on how the sport might create club hubs and map out the equitable division of places to play.
- Collaborative development, consultation, and preparation of a Plan for the whole of sport in WA utilising best practise examples from industry.
- Identify and develop relationships with relevant stakeholder individuals and organisations.
- Identify and support preparation of business cases, including resource allocation for future places to play initiatives.
- Support the endorsement, publication and implementation of the Plan and its identified initiatives.
- Reflect on and share key learnings and support reporting and communication processes.

Strategic Plan Priorities

Participation

- Grow the volleyball participant base and establish expected growth targets.
- Review and implement the places to play strategy with a focus on high growth local communities.

Profile

- Maintain and develop meaningful engagement with current and new sponsors and stakeholders.

Through People

- Continue to strengthen alignment between all volleyball participants and external stakeholders.

Working Principles

1. The members of the Places To Play WG will recognise and support the confidential nature of the working committee and will support and develop Volleyball WA's broad goal regarding relation to the participation and engagement activities, events, and programs.
2. The members of the Places To Play WG will support Volleyball WA's mission and vision statements and will abide and be bound by the Volleyball WA's constitution, by-laws, and Codes of Conduct.

Appointment Process

The term of appointment for Places To Play WG will be initially for 2 years; to be evaluated annually.

At the discretion of the Working Group, other experts may be consulted to act as advisors to the Working Group.

It is anticipated that meetings would initially be quarterly. Members would be expected to review pre-prepared material and/or provide constructive opinions and solutions as well as support identified initiative development and implementation.
