

SOCIAL VOLLEY

SOCIAL VOLLEY PROVIDERS 2026

VOLLEYBALL WESTERN AUSTRALIA

Social Volley Overview
Social Volley can be run in a variety of locations including indoor facilities, the beach, or parks with a target audience of any adult age. It can incorporate a one-off social event, a term long social program or league. All registrations for activities can be done through the VWA Member Portal via a weblink, VWA term memberships are automatically allocated (if required) and participant data is automatically displayed in the VWA Club portal. Activities are branded with the logo to provide collective marketing and reach across WA.

Social Volley Events
Social Volley Events typically run for one or two days consisting of multiple sessions or matches. They are designed for participants to play volleyball in a fun and exciting way or enjoy the social aspect of volleyball in a relaxed environment. Events can introduce participants to standard volleyball rules and help with understanding the game while improving their skills and progressing in their volleyball journey. It can also simply provide a location for players to come together to play socially. Prominent Events can also become VWA Sanctioned Events promoted on the VWA Calendar by completing the "Single Event Sanctioning Form" (available by request).

Social Volley Programs
Social Volley Programs typically run for 5 to 10 sessions over a maximum 12-week period but can also be run as a drop-in format. Social Volley Programs can introduce participants to standard volleyball rules and help with understanding the game while improving their skills and progressing their volleyball or simply provide a location for players to come together to play and socialise. Like Events, Social Volley Programs are designed for participants to learn the fundamentals of volleyball in a fun and exciting way or enjoy the social aspect of volleyball in a relaxed environment.

Social Volley League
Leagues typically run for approximately 10 weeks over a maximum 12-week period. Social Volley Leagues are designed for participants to play social level volleyball matches. It can be an introduction to volleyball rules and help with understanding the game while providing a location for players to come together and play.

Registrations through your own Club Website / Portal
VWA affiliates that run Social Volley programs, but do not wish to use the VWA Member portal can run these programs independently and with limited support from VWA by following these requirements:

- As per the VWA Membership policy, participants will require a minimum annual VWA Gold Membership prior to the activity which can be purchased by individuals directly through the Fortix Member portal.
- VWA will not accept any member lists from Clubs to be manually processed.
- Clubs will be required to tag their program participants in their Member portal.
- Participants who are members of another club can add your Club in their VWA Member portal.
